

Virginia's Career Coach Program

The Career Coach program in Virginia is providing colleges and school divisions with increases and improvements in:

- Dual-enrollment
- Enrollment in community college and postsecondary CTE programs
- Relations between high schools and community colleges
- Partnerships with business and industry
- An opportunity to meet President Obama's challenge, in the American Graduation Initiative, to provide high school students comprehensive, personalized services to help them plan their careers and stay in school

The Virginia Community College System (VCCS) offers the following services to help your school division or college establish its own career coach program:

- Training for coaches and supervisors
- Opportunity for certification
- Career Coach Manuals
- Evaluation Instruments
- Sample MOUs between school divisions and community colleges
- On Line Community of Practice
